ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION

Canon 1

Ordination into the Priesthood

A Deacon desiring to be ordained to the priesthood shall apply to the Bishop to be ordained a Presbyter. A Deacon shall remain a Deacon for not Less than six (6) months and no more than one (1) year, in order to be trained, understands more of the ministry, the rubric and scriptures.

All Deacons must have biblical studies and be certified by the Bishop for Priests within the limit of being ordained a Deacon.

No person shall be ordained to the priesthood without a mandate from the Patriarch.

All candidates to be ordained to the priesthood shall be ordained by the Primate within the Apostolic Succession as it is passed down in the scriptures.

Canon 2

Holy Order of Apostolic Priesthood

The Evangelistic Apostolic Church Diocese is an Archdiocese within itself and is a Universal Apostolic Denominational that brings Brotherhood and Sisterhood of all clergy together in unity of the Priesthood in Apostolic Succession.

We are an Apostolic Church. When Christ Jesus walked this earth, he chose for himself twelve men to follow him. These twelve disciples of our Lord were the twelve Apostles, with whom Jesus entrusted the Church. As the Apostles went out into the world to spread the Gospel, they appointed bishops to lead the Church. Those who have been consecrated bishop can trace their authority back to the Apostles the Apostolic and Christ Jesus in an unbroken line of succession. We are one with Rite and New Covenant.

We believe in One, Holy, Apostolic Church Sacred in accord with Tradition, declares its belief that the bishops of the Church are each Successors to the Apostles and hold the teaching authority granted to the Apostles by Jesus Christ. This authority is not vested in any single bishop regardless of office or position but is equally and jointly held by all bishops.

The Apostolic Church teaches the faith that Christ himself gave to his Apostles and continue the ancient Apostolic practices. Apostolic which means Apostles of Christ. We are his teachers and preachers of his holy word and are with one in him.

I. EACD is an Evangelistic (Inter-Communion) Apostolic Archdiocese of the Holy Order of the Priesthood that welcomes unity of the Christian ministry that consist of Anglican Rite, Episcopal or Reformed Episcopal, Lutheran, Celtic Orthodox Rite, Roman Rite, Protestant, Methodist and Non-Protestant alike come together as one cause for our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. These are made up of a unity within an Inter-Communion of Ministers, Lay Pastors, Deacons, Priest and Bishops that are looking for a place to be without being judged of who they are, Which in fact we are all Disciples of Christ made apostles to preach the gospel of his holy word of the scriptures and to teach of what the bible has given us truth of the Living God. This makes the Apostolic Rite. We are the teachers of Christ and follow what was passed down in the scriptures.

II. We do not judge other ministers just because they are not of our church, when they are ordained should and just want and actually when they are ordained to preach from the scriptures and if that minister did in fact have had laying of hands upon him. When we are ordained Apostles (Priest) of our Lord Jesus Christ. We are in fact a Brotherhood within the Priesthood of Apostles given the authority passed down through apostolic succession for over two thousand years and of the new covenant set forth. The Bishops where given the authority as the overseer of the church as Jesus appointed in the scriptures.

III. EACD declares its belief in the ancient Symbol of Faith known as the Nicene Creed, sine "filioque".

We believe in One God, the Father, the Almighty Creator of Heaven and Earth and of all that is seen and unseen; and in one Lord, Jesus Christ the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father: God from God, Light from Light, True God from True God.

Begotten not made one in being with the Father, through Him all things were made. For us and for our salvation, He came down from heaven and, by the Power of the Holy Spirit He was born of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered, died and was buried. On the third day He rose again, in fulfillment of the scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He shall come again in Glory to judge the living and the dead and His Kingdom there shall be no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and the Giver of Life, who proceeds from the Father. With the Father and the Son He is worshipped and glorified; He has spoken through the prophets. We believe in One, Holy Apostolic Church, we acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and we look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

IV. EACD also accepts the other ancient statements of faith known as the Apostle's and Nicene Creeds as equally valid and useful summarize the faith. These creeds teach that God is triune -- Father, Son and Holy Ghost. God the Son became man; he came down from heaven to be born of the Virgin Mary. He lived a sinless life. He was crucified for us at Calvary, he died and was buried, and he rose again from death. By his most precious death and passion, he provided for us sinners a way to be reconciled to God.

V. We believe that the sacraments are outward signs of the continued presence of Christ and his saving grace among us. There are seven sacraments:

Baptism by water in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit is a cleansing of sin and a new birth. John the Baptist was sent to prepare the way before the Lord. He called sinners to be baptized in the River Jordan in preparation for the coming ministry of our Lord Jesus.

The Mass is the Lord's Supper, otherwise known as the Eucharist, Holy Communion or Divine Liturgy. Jesus instituted this sacrament when he gathered together his disciples and broke bread among them and shared a cup of wine. The bread is his body, and the wine is his most precious blood. When we come to the Lord's Table at mass to receive this sacrament, we come as humble members of the Body of Christ after careful preparation. The Mass is the central focus of our church service. Holy Communion should be done in every service and as often as possible. Recommended Passover wine or Welch's Red Grape Juice may be used either one is fine to use. Never Grape juice in purple color always in red signify the precious blood of our Lord.

Confirmation is the laying on of hands by the bishop. Confirmations are instructed about the Church and the Faith. When the bishop confirms the person, he does so in the long line of succession by which the Apostles themselves laid their hands on the first bishops. This sacrament conveys the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Penance is the confession of sin to God in the presence of a priest. The priest pronounces the forgiveness of sin and not reveals a confession to anyone but God alone. He may not even bring up the contents of a confession to the same blesses the penitent. All confession is private and inviolable. The priest may penitent later in time.

Holy Unction is the anointing with oil for healing when one is ill. The bishop for this special use has blessed the oil used.

Holy Matrimony is the union of one man and one woman for life before God. A man and a woman come before God and the Church to make their vows. This relationship is like Christ and His Church. The Church is the Bride.

Holy Orders convey the Apostolic Ministry of Bishops, Priests, and Deacons in the Church. Christ instituted these orders.

Laying on Hands in ordinations of the priesthood. This is done with two Bishops in by laying hands on top of the candidate and praying, then one Bishop anoints both palms of the hands and say: May the Holy spirit of healing in your hands be given to you in healing others in Jesus name and then anoint the forehead with oil in making the sign of the cross and say: May the cross give you wisdom. Take the Holy Bible over the candidate's head and touch each shoulder and say: May the Living Word give you knowledge in power of teaching Holy Scriptures. Laying on Hands are also done in given of a blessing with a anointing power through Jesus Christ and in healing power.

VI. EACD declares its belief in the Revelation of God and God's Son, Jesus Christ, found in the Canonical Scriptures (i.e. the Bible). This Revelation is inert in matters of faith.

VII. EACD declares its belief in the Seven Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Reconciliation, Eucharist, Matrimony, Holy Orders, and Anointing of the Sick as signs of the Lord Jesus' continuing Presence and action in His Church and channels of Actual and Sanctifying Grace.

VIII. EACD declares its belief in the actual, real, and true Presence of the Lord Jesus Christ; body, blood, soul, and Divinity; in each and every portion of the Eucharistic Elements of bread and wine; from the moment of their consecration in the Liturgy until the moment of their dissolution. EACD does not identify the process by which this miracle transpires as the Lord Jesus has not seen fit to reveal a mechanism. EACD simply accepts that it is true, on His Word.

IX. EACD declares its belief in the Sacred Traditions of the One, Holy Apostolic Church.

X. EACD declares its belief that Matters of the Faith may be defined for the Church only in the presence of a moral consensus of all bishops and that, to be considered normative for the Church, a teaching proposed by the bishops in a matter of the Faith must also be Received by a moral consensus of the People of God (sensum fidei)

XI. EACD declares its belief that Apostolic Succession, vested in the bishops, and passed on by them in the Sacrament of Holy Orders, is necessary for the licit and efficacious celebration of the Sacraments.

XII. EACD declares its belief that it is called by Jesus Christ to preach the Good News of His life, death, and resurrection; and to extend His Sacraments to all who appropriately and reverently seek them.

Canon 3
