

Intro to Christian Ethics
Exam-27

1. Within the evangelical community, there are three major positions on the problem of war. Identify these positions.

- A.
Noncombatant Immunity, Right Intention, Right Authority
- B.
Just Cause, Contradictory Position, Proportionate Means
- C.
Biblical Pacifism, Christian Activism, Just War Tradition
- D.
Capital Punishment, Reconciliation, Restoration

2. The four reasons for studying Christian Ethics as defined in this course are:

- A.
abortion is out of control, euthanasia is common place, bioethics has no guidelines, sexual norms are without bounds
- B.
The Church is weak, the family unit is all but extinct, marriage is no longer significant, youth no longer respect authority
- C.
No absolute framework, the slippery slope, integrated nature of ethics, lack of defence of ethical issues
- D.
Homosexuality has become an alternative life style, the courts are condoning bad ethics, the work place is not Christ-centered, communities have lowered their morals

3. The three relativistic ethical options discussed in this course are:

- A.
Cultural relativism, situation ethics, and behaviorism
- B.
Propositional truth, ethical framework, and absolute criteria
- C.
Godly perspective, Christian viewpoint, and moral absolutes
- D.
Ethical behavior, moral truths, and postmodern values

4. _____ is a process whereby a man's sperm can be used to fertilize a woman's egg outside the womb.

- A.
in utero fertilization
- B.
gene mapping
- C. cloning
- D.
in vitro fertilization

5. According to this study of Christian Ethics homosexuality is a learned behavior.

- A.
True
- B.
False

6. The Bible declares without a doubt that the prenatal fetus is a human being.

- A.
True
- B.
False

7. As it relates to the Christian's duty and responsibility to the state, the Christian must pay taxes and obey pagan and Christian authority.

- A.
True
- B.
False

8. A new ethic is replacing the Judeo-Christian ethic which is the _____ ethic which at its core places relative rather than absolute value on human beings.

9. This course discussed four models identifying how Christians should relate to culture. Choose ALL of the correct models.

- A.
The Separational Model
- B.
The Ethical Model
- C.
The Transformational Model
- D.
The Incarnational Model
- E.
The Identificational Model

10. A decision made by the Supreme Court in 1973 called Roe v. Wade declared abortion the right of each woman but illegal.

- A.
True
- B.
False

11. Ethics is defined as what we do and morals are defined as what we ought to do.

- A.
True
- B.
False

12. Ethics is what is _____ and _____. It refers to a set of standards around which we organize our lives.

- A.
moral, good
- B. normative, absolute
- C.
perfect, sinless
- D. cultural, hopeful